

Women on the Water Weekend Getaway

June 1-3, 2018
Pere Marquette River
Baldwin, Michigan

fly casting instruction educational session conservation discussion guided float meals provided door prizes

Join us for the second annual Women on the Water weekend getaway! Schrems West Michigan Trout Unlimited Chapter is proud to present a women's only weekend at the Pere Marquette River Lodge. The PM Lodge is located along banks of one of Michigan's most prized blue ribbon trout streams - the Pere Marquette River. Beginners welcome, intermediate and experienced fly fishing ladies will also find this trip fun and informative. Support the TU Women's Initiative and register today! (Group is limited to the first 20 registrants.)

Package Pricing

$250pp - 2 nights/double occupancy, meals, instruction + half day shared guide trip or (pricing does not include tips and gratuities for guide services or rental equipment if needed)

$350pp - 2 nights/double occupancy, meals, instruction + full day shared guide trip. (pricing does not include tips and gratuities for guide services or rental equipment if needed)

Plan to Attend

Friday, June 1

Check-in @ PM Lodge
Social / Reception
Special Presentation
Destination Fly Fishing

Saturday, June 2

Coffee & Full Breakfast
Educational Session
Casting Assistance / Instruction
Riverside Chat / Entomology
Lunch & Conservation Talk
Float Trip - Meet Your Guide
Dinner on the Water (full-day float only)
Fire Side Chat / Fishing Stories

Sunday, June 3

Coffee @ Lite Breakfast
Check-out of Room
Casting Contest/Prizes
Gear / Clothing Review

RSVP by Friday, May 11 @ swmtu.org

Questions? Contact Marci Cisneros, SWMTU Vice President, mcisneros@visitgrandhaven.com or text/call 616.502.0544. NOTE: If you have your own gear, plan on bringing it: rigged rod, waders/boots or wet wading shoes. If you don't have your own gear, let us know when you register.